

Membership Types

Full Members

- Are members who have paid a membership fee;
- Can attend meetings;
- Have voting rights;
- Can become executive, or general, committee members;
- Can lead projects;
- Can benefit from any discounts or special offers available to the Queensland Motorcycle Council Inc.

Affiliate Members

- Are interested entities which are involved in some way with motorcycling. They may be cafes, bike shops. Insurers, distributors, etc;
- Do not pay a membership fee;
- Can attend meetings as observer and be invited to comment;
- Have no voting rights;
- Are not eligible to become committee members;
- Are eligible to participate in projects but not lead them;
- Owners and employees of affiliated entities can also be Full Members.

Club/Association Members

- Are Clubs/Associations who have paid the club membership fee;
- Must nominate one person as their representative;
- The nominated representative can attend meetings;
- The nominated representative has a single vote on behalf of the Club/Association;
- The nominated representative can participate in projects but not lead them;
- If the representative is also a full member that person may exercise both their own and the Club/Association's vote.

Patrons

- Are members who are invited to the position and are a significant representative of motorcycling;
- They are not paid members;
- They are ineligible to become paid members;

Queensland Motorcycle Council Inc

- Can attend meetings;
- They have no voting rights;
- They may participate in projects but not lead them.

All Members

- Must have read, and agreed to comply with, the Constitution, Code of Conduct and By-Laws of the Queensland Motorcycle Council Inc.
- Are allowed to donate money or goods and services, if they wish, that are
  1. In support of the QMC to be used at their discretion;
  2. For use on a specific project;
  3. On the understanding that the donated money or goods and services are not intended to influence the decisions or actions of the QMC.